1.3 Nature of Relationship

The Agent enters into this Agreement strictly as an independent contractor. The Agent is not an employee, officer, equity owner, franchisee, partner, or legal representative of RHP Insurance, LLC.

The use of the term "Program" in the title of this Agreement is branding language only. However, the Agent shall not represent or imply that they are an employee, officer, corporate spokesperson, or authorized signatory of RHP Insurance, LLC.

All marketing materials, advertisements, presentations, websites, business cards, email signatures, or social-media content referencing RHP Insurance LLC must use Company-approved designs and templates. The Agent agrees not to produce, publish, or distribute any promotional material referencing RHP Insurance LLC without prior written approval from an authorized RHP representative.

The Agent further agrees that, prior to seeking appointment or contracting directly with any other agency, FMO, IMO, or carrier not managed or approved by RHP Insurance, LLC, the Agent must provide written notice to RHP identifying the entity with whom the Agent intends to contract. Failure to provide such notice or to disclose outside appointments may result in immediate suspension of commissions, forfeiture of bonuses, or termination of this Agreement at the discretion of RHP Insurance, LLC.

1.4 Geographic and Corporate Scope

This Agreement applies to RHP Insurance, LLC and to any future or successor name, affiliate, DBA, division, or entity owned or controlled by RHP. The Agreement remains binding if RHP is sold, merged, restructured, rebranded, or expanded into additional states or lines of business.

1.7 Acknowledgment and Execution

By signing this Agreement, the Agent acknowledges that they have read, understood, and agree to be bound by all terms and conditions contained herein.

The Agent further acknowledges and agrees that they are entering into this Agreement as an independent contractor and not as an employee of RHP Insurance, LLC. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to create any employer-employee relationship, partnership, joint venture, or franchise between the Agent and RHP.

The Agent understands that they are solely responsible for their own business activities, including but not limited to expenses, licensing, taxes, and compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

Ownership of business produced under this Agreement shall be governed by Section 3.4.

SECTION 2 – INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR STATUS

2.1 Relationship of the Parties

The Agent acknowledges and agrees that they are entering into this Agreement strictly as an independent contractor. Nothing in this Agreement shall be construed to create an employer–employee relationship, partnership, joint venture, or franchise between the Agent and RHP Insurance, LLC.

The Agent has no authority to bind, commit, enter into contracts for, incur debt for, or otherwise obligate RHP Insurance, LLC in any manner, unless specifically authorized in writing by an officer of the Company.

2.2 Taxes and Financial Responsibilities

The Agent shall be solely responsible for all federal, state, and local taxes, including self-employment taxes, Social Security, Medicare, and any other tax obligations arising from income earned under this Agreement.

The Company shall not withhold any taxes on behalf of the Agent and shall issue the appropriate IRS Form 1099 for commissions paid. The Agent agrees to indemnify and hold harmless RHP Insurance, LLC for any liability, penalty, or interest assessed due to the Agent's failure to pay required taxes or maintain proper tax records.

2.3 Licensing, Insurance, and Compliance Costs

The Agent shall maintain, at their own expense:
(a) All required state and federal insurance licenses and appointments;

(b) Continuing-education credits;
(c) Errors and Omissions (E&O) coverage meeting carrier standards; and
(d) Any other permits or certifications required by law or regulation.

Failure to maintain active licenses or E&O insurance constitutes grounds for immediate suspension of commissions and/or termination of this Agreement.

2.4 No Employee Benefits

The Agent understands and agrees that they are not entitled to any employee benefits of RHP Insurance, LLC, including but not limited to health insurance, retirement plans, paid leave, or workers' compensation coverage.

The Agent further acknowledges that they are not eligible to file for unemployment compensation or any similar benefit based on this Agreement.

2.5 Tools, Equipment, and Workspace

The Agent is responsible for providing and maintaining, at their own cost, all tools, equipment, software, technology, office supplies, workspace, communication devices, and transportation necessary to perform their duties under this Agreement.

RHP Insurance, LLC does not supply such materials and shall not be responsible for any expenses related to the Agent's business operations. The Agent is also responsible for maintaining proper data security, privacy protections, and compliance with HIPAA or other applicable regulations when handling client information through their own systems.

2.6 Liability and Indemnification

The Agent agrees that they are solely responsible for their professional conduct, advice, and representations made to clients, prospects, and carriers.

RHP Insurance, LLC assumes no liability for any act, omission, misrepresentation, or error committed by the Agent. 2.7 Technology and Platform Access Fees, access levels, and eligibility may vary based on Agent's position, production level, or promotion status and may change automatically upon promotion or demotion. Failure to maintain required access may result in suspension of services, reassignment, or termination.

2.8 Independent Contractor Acknowledgment

By initialing below, the Agent acknowledges that they have read and understand this Section 2 in its entirety, agree that their relationship with RHP Insurance, LLC is that of an independent contractor and not an employee, and confirm that they are solely responsible for their own conduct, compliance, and business operations as described above.

Agent Initials: _____
(Initials acknowledge understanding and acceptance of Section 2.)

SECTION 3 – COMPENSATION, COMMISSIONS & OWNERSHIP

3.1 Compensation Structure

All compensation to the Agent shall be commission-based and contingent upon production and receipt of commissions by RHP Insurance, LLC from the applicable carrier or partner.

RHP Insurance, LLC shall receive all carrier commissions directly and will in turn pay the Agent the percentage or flat-rate commission earned in accordance with the Company's current compensation schedule applicable to the Agent's level or contract tier.

No salary, hourly pay, draw, or minimum income is guaranteed under this Agreement. The Agent is not entitled to payment for time, training, recruiting, or non-production activities unless expressly stated in writing by RHP.

3.2 Timing and Method of Payment

Commissions will be paid to the Agent after funds have been received and cleared by RHP Insurance, LLC from the carrier or partner and after any required reconciliation or compliance checks.

All commission payments will be issued via the payment method on file with RHP. The Agent is responsible for maintaining accurate banking and tax information.

RHP Insurance, LLC reserves the right to delay or withhold payment if there are outstanding compliance issues, unresolved chargebacks, or missing documentation from the Agent.

3.3 Commission Adjustments and Chargebacks

If RHP Insurance, LLC is charged back, debited, or otherwise required to return any portion of a commission to a carrier or partner for business written by the Agent, RHP shall have the right to deduct such amounts from the Agent's current or future commissions.

RHP may also offset chargebacks from one line of business (for example, Life, Supplemental, or ACA) against commissions owed to the Agent from another line of business.

However, RHP will not deduct or cross-apply chargebacks immediately unless the Agent's account remains in a negative commission balance for more than sixty (60) consecutive days.

If, after sixty (60) days, the Agent's chargebacks or unpaid balances have not been resolved or repaid through new production, RHP may begin offsetting such amounts from commissions earned in other product lines.

If the Agent terminates this Agreement, is terminated by RHP, or remains in a negative commission standing after the 60-day period, RHP reserves the right to retain any unpaid commissions or bonuses to satisfy outstanding chargebacks or related obligations.

RHP may suspend future advances, bonuses, or payments if the Agent's cumulative chargebacks exceed 25 percent of the previous 90 days of paid commissions until the balance is resolved.

Incentives; Retroactive Disqualification. Agent acknowledges that eligibility for any incentive, bonus, reimbursement, paid license, paid appointment, paid subscription, marketing credit, training benefit, or similar program ("Incentive") is contingent upon sustained production and persistency as defined by RHP and/or the applicable carrier or FMO. If production that qualified Agent for an Incentive is later reduced, reversed, or disqualified due to chargebacks, policy rescissions, cancellations, non-payment, compliance issues, or carrier reversals, Agent shall be deemed retroactively ineligible for such Incentive. In such event, RHP may recover the full or prorated value of the Incentive by offset against future commissions, bonuses, overrides, or other compensation, or by invoicing Agent directly. Any unpaid balance shall be immediately due and owing.

3.3 Chargebacks, Offsets, and Incentives.

Agent acknowledges that commissions, bonuses, advances, overrides, incentives, or other compensation may be subject to chargebacks, reversals, rescissions, cancellations, non-payment, compliance issues, or carrier or FMO adjustments. The Company reserves the right to offset any such amounts against future commissions, bonuses, overrides, or other compensation payable to Agent to the maximum extent permitted by law.

Incentives; Retroactive Disqualification.

Agent acknowledges that eligibility for any incentive, bonus, reimbursement, paid license, paid appointment, paid subscription, marketing credit, training benefit, or similar program ("Incentive") is contingent upon sustained production, persistency, and compliance, as determined by the Company and/or applicable carrier or FMO. If production qualifying Agent for an Incentive is later reduced, reversed, or disqualified due to chargebacks, rescissions, cancellations, non-payment, compliance issues, or carrier reversals, Agent shall be deemed retroactively ineligible for such Incentive.

In such event, the Company may recover the full or prorated value of the Incentive by offset against future compensation or by invoicing Agent directly. Any unpaid balance shall be immediately due and owing.

Any unpaid balance owed to the Company under this Section may be pursued through arbitration, collection, or legal action. Agent agrees that the Company may seek entry of judgment on any arbitration award and recover reasonable attorneys' fees and costs to the fullest extent permitted by law.

3.4 Ownership of Clients and Business

All clients and policies personally produced by the Agent under this Agreement shall be considered the Agent's Book of Business. The Agent retains ownership, servicing rights, and renewal commissions associated with their Book of Business, so long as such compensation is paid by the applicable carrier or partner and remains subject to standard carrier guidelines, persistency, and chargeback provisions.

In the event the Agent chooses to leave RHP, the Agent may request to transfer their Book of Business to another organization, subject to standard carrier approval and provided there are no outstanding chargebacks, debts, or compliance issues owed to RHP. RHP agrees not to unreasonably delay or interfere with such requests.

Any clients or accounts provided directly by RHP through company-generated leads, marketing, reassignment, or internal distribution shall remain the property of RHP unless otherwise agreed in writing.

In the event the Agent elects to sell, assign, or otherwise transfer their Book of Business, the Agent agrees to first provide RHP with written notice of such intent and a reasonable opportunity to present an offer to purchase such business. If the parties are unable to reach a mutually agreeable arrangement within a reasonable period of time, the Agent shall be free to sell or transfer their Book of Business to a third party of their choosing, subject to standard carrier approval and applicable contractual obligations.

3.4A Agent Book of Business; Economic Interest; Transfer Restrictions.

3.4A.1 Economic Interest Only.

The Agent acknowledges that all business is submitted, processed, and maintained through RHP's carrier relationships, systems, branding, and operational infrastructure.
Accordingly, nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted to grant the Agent ownership of:

- RHP systems, CRM, or technology
- Company branding, marketing, or intellectual property
- Carrier or FMO/IMO relationships
- Organizational or hierarchical structures within RHP

3.4A.2 No Automatic Transfer, Sale, or Assignment Rights.
The Agent may sell, assign, or transfer their Book of Business, subject to the terms of this Agreement, applicable carrier requirements, and industry regulations.
RHP shall not unreasonably restrict the Agent's ability to realize the value of their Book of Business, provided that all obligations to RHP have been satisfied.
Any proposed sale or transfer must reflect a commercially reasonable valuation. To ensure fairness to all parties, RHP reserves the right to require that the Book of Business be evaluated by an independent third-party valuation professional or mutually agreed-upon third party.
If a proposed transaction is determined, in good faith, to be materially inconsistent with reasonable market value, RHP reserves the right to reject or require adjustment of the transaction terms.
The Agent agrees to provide sufficient documentation of the proposed transaction, including pricing, structure, and relevant business metrics, upon request.
3.4A.3 Right of First Opportunity and Good Faith Negotiation
If the Agent elects to sell, assign, or transfer their Book of Business, the Agent shall provide written notice to RHP outlining the intent to sell and the material terms of the proposed transaction, including estimated value, structure, and any known prospective buyer.
RHP shall have a right of first opportunity to present an offer to acquire the Book of Business. RHP shall have thirty (30) days from receipt of such notice to submit an offer, in its sole discretion, based on its internal evaluation and/or any independent valuation obtained pursuant to this Agreement
Following RHP's initial offer, the Agent agrees to engage in good faith negotiations with RHP for a reasonable period of time, not less than fifteen (15) days, to attempt to reach mutually agreeable terms before proceeding with any third-party transaction.
The Agent shall not finalize or enter into any agreement with a third party during such good faith negotiation period.
If, after good faith efforts by both parties, no agreement is reached, the Agent may proceed with a sale to a third party, subject to the terms of this Agreement, including compliance requirements, carrier approval, and absence of conflicts of interest.
RHP reserves the right to reasonably approve or reject any proposed buyer or transfer where necessary to protect client interests, comply with carrier or regulatory requirements, or avoid material conflicts of interest. Such approval shall not be unreasonably withheld.

The Agent agrees not to structure or manipulate any proposed transaction in a manner intended to circumvent RHP's rights under this Section.

3.4A.4 Approval of Transfer and Protection of Business Interests
If the Company elects not to exercise its right of first refusal, the Company may, at its sole discretion, approve an internal transfer to a Company-affiliated agent, impose additional conditions, designate an alternative purchaser, or deny the proposed transfer entirely. No transfer to any external individual or entity shall be permitted unless expressly approved in writing by the Company.
3.4A.5 Excluded Interests.

For clarity, the Agent shall have no ownership interest in, and no right to sell, assign, or transfer:
(a) downline agents, organizational hierarchy, or team structure;
(b) overrides, bonuses, or team-based compensation beyond amounts earned under the applicable compensation schedule;
(c) Company-provided servicing platforms, administrative functions, or support services;
(d) client data maintained within Company systems, subject to applicable privacy and compliance requirements; or
(e) the Company's systems, branding, intellectual property, carrier contracts, or business relationships.

3.4A.6 Valuation and Conditions.
Any proposed valuation, sale, or transfer of a Book of Business shall be based on commercially reasonable terms and may be supported by an independent third-party valuation, if requested by either the Agent or RHP.
In evaluating or reviewing a proposed transaction, relevant factors may include, but are not limited to, persistency, chargeback history, compliance standing, servicing obligations, carrier requirements, and any outstanding financial obligations owed to RHP. RHP shall not unreasonably interfere with a bona fide transaction that reflects fair market value and satisfies the requirements of this Agreement.

3.4A.7 Reservation of Rights; Future Programs.
Nothing in this Agreement shall be interpreted to grant the Agent ownership or rights beyond those expressly stated herein.
RHP may, from time to time, offer additional programs, incentives, or opportunities related to ownership, equity, or business participation. Any such programs shall be governed by separate written agreements and may include specific eligibility requirements, performance criteria, or vesting conditions.

3.5 Non-Solicitation of Agents and Organizational Protection

The Agent acknowledges that RHP Insurance, LLC has invested substantial time, resources, and infrastructure in developing its agent network, systems, and business relationships.
During the term of this Agreement, the Agent agrees not to directly or indirectly recruit, solicit, induce, or attempt to recruit any agent, contractor, or representative affiliated with RHP to join or move to another insurance agency, FMO, IMO, or competing business model.
Following termination of this Agreement, for a period of two (2) years, the Agent agrees not to directly or indirectly:

1. Recruit, solicit, or induce any RHP agent to terminate or reduce their relationship with RHP;
2. Assist or participate in the movement of any RHP agent to another organization;
3. Encourage or influence any RHP agent to join a competing insurance or financial services platform.

This restriction applies to all agents affiliated with RHP, regardless of whether they were personally recruited by the Agent.
However, this provision shall not restrict the Agent from engaging in general recruiting activities that are not specifically directed toward RHP agents.
The Agent acknowledges that a violation of this section would cause significant harm to RHP, and agrees that RHP may seek injunctive relief, damages, or any other remedies available under law.

3.6 Outside Appointments and Disclosure
The Agent may seek and maintain carrier appointments or contractual relationships with other organizations.
The Agent agrees to provide written notice to RHP of any such outside appointments or affiliations, including the name of the entity and the general nature of the relationship.

The Agent further agrees not to engage in any outside activities that create a material conflict with their obligations under this Agreement or that could reasonably be expected to harm RHP's business interests, relationships, or operations.
Without limiting the foregoing, the Agent shall not circumvent RHP by directly or indirectly contracting with, soliciting, or placing business through any carrier, FMO, IMO, or similar entity with which the Agent was introduced to or became aware of through RHP.
The Agent agrees to reasonably cooperate with RHP in connection with any claims, investigations, or legal proceedings involving third parties arising out of or related to business conducted under this Agreement.
Except as required by law, the Agent shall not voluntarily provide assistance, information, or support to any third party in a manner that is intended to harm RHP's business interests in connection with such matters.
Nothing in this Section shall be interpreted to restrict the Agent from complying with lawful obligations, including responding to subpoenas, court orders, or providing truthful testimony when required by law.

3.7 Modifications to Compensation

RHP Insurance, LLC reserves the right to modify compensation schedules, bonus programs, or commission structures at anytime.

Changes will apply prospectively only, and no retroactive reductions will be made for business already paid.

3.8 Commission Disputes

Agent must submit any commission dispute in writing and provide all supporting documentation. Disputes must be submitted within thirty (30) days after the later of: (i) Agent's receipt of the applicable carrier, FMO, or general agency commission statement or written confirmation, or (ii) the date such statement or confirmation is made available to Agent.

Where compensation is paid directly to Agent by a carrier, FMO, or other third party, such disputes shall be governed exclusively by that entity's procedures and timelines, and the Company shall not be responsible for carrier or third-party payment delays.

Where compensation is paid through the Company, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to research and process the dispute and shall make any required adjustment within thirty (30) days after receiving final written confirmation from the applicable carrier, FMO, or general agency. Additional time may be required where reconciliation or documentation is pending.

3.9 Acknowledgment of Compensation Terms

By signing this Agreement, the Agent acknowledges that they have read and understand this Section 3 in its entirety, including commission structure, ownership provisions, chargeback responsibilities, and other compensation terms, and accept these as binding upon execution of this Agreement.

Commission Disputes.

Agent must submit any commission dispute in writing and provide all supporting documentation. Disputes must be submitted within thirty (30) days after the later of: (i) Agent's receipt of the applicable carrier, FMO, or general agency commission statement or written confirmation, or (ii) the date such statement or confirmation is made available to Agent.

Where compensation is paid directly to Agent by a carrier, FMO, or other third party, such disputes shall be governed exclusively by that entity's procedures and timelines. The Company shall not be responsible for carrier or third-party payment delays.

Where compensation is paid through the Company, the Company shall use commercially reasonable efforts to research and process the dispute and shall make any required adjustment within thirty (30) days after receiving final written confirmation from the carrier, FMO, or general agency. Additional time may be required where reconciliation or documentation is pending.

SECTION 4- TEAM STRUCTURE AND PROFESSIONAL CONDUCT

4.1 Mentorship, Leadership, and Team Development

RHP Insurance, LLC promotes a culture of leadership, accountability, and mentorship. Any Agent who recruits, trains, or sponsors another Agent under the RHP platform assumes a reasonable responsibility to guide, support, and assist those Agents in developing the knowledge and skills necessary to succeed.

This responsibility includes providing periodic communication, helping new Agents understand RHP systems, and maintaining a standard of professional conduct consistent with RHP's values and compliance requirements.

While mentorship is not employment and does not create any legal supervisory relationship, it is considered an integral part of the RHP compensation structure. Agents may be eligible to receive overrides, bonuses, or performance-based compensation tied to the production of their recruited Agents or team members, to the extent permitted by RHP's published compensation schedule and only when the hierarchy structure allows for such payment.

Mentorship responsibilities are expected to continue as long as the relationship between the sponsoring Agent and their team remains active under RHP. Agents who fail to provide reasonable support or who abandon their recruited team members may be subject to review, reassignment of downline agents, or forfeiture of overrides as determined by RHP Insurance, LLC.

All team members and recruits, regardless of who introduced them, remain part of the RHP hierarchy and under the ownership and oversight of RHP Insurance, LLC at all times.

4.2 Professional Standards and Conduct

Agents are expected to conduct themselves with professionalism, honesty, and respect toward clients, carriers, other agents, and members of the public.

Unethical, deceptive, or misleading sales practices are strictly prohibited. Agents shall comply with all federal, state, and carrier-specific marketing and sales regulations, including CMS, HIPAA, and any applicable state insurance department rules.

Any complaints, investigations, or disciplinary actions related to the Agent's conduct must be immediately reported to RHP. Failure to disclose such matters may result in suspension or termination.

4.3 Marketing and Online Representation

All marketing, advertising, and online content referencing RHP Insurance, LLC must be approved in advance by RHP's marketing or compliance department.

Agents may identify themselves publicly as "Independent Agents with RHP Insurance, LLC" but may not imply employment, corporate officer status, or make statements that could mislead the public regarding RHP's business structure or products.

Agents are responsible for maintaining professionalism across all online platforms, including social media. Content that could damage RHP's reputation or create regulatory exposure may result in corrective action or termination.

4.4 Use of RHP Systems and Processes

RHP Insurance, LLC provides certain systems, software, training materials, and best-practice procedures to support agents in their business.

While Agents retain flexibility in how they manage their own operations, they are expected to utilize RHP's systems in good faith to ensure compliance, accuracy, and client protection. This includes following RHP's onboarding, application submission, and data privacy protocols.

Agents must not share, copy, or distribute RHP's internal systems, scripts, or training content without written authorization.

4.5 Reporting and Cooperation

Agents are required to cooperate in good faith with RHP management and compliance teams, including providing timely documentation, responding to audit requests, and assisting in client or carrier inquiries.

Failure to cooperate or provide required documentation within reasonable timeframes may result in suspension of commissions or termination of this Agreement.

4.6 Acknowledgment of Team and Conduct Standards

By signing this Agreement, the Agent acknowledges that they have read and understand this Section 4 in its entirety, including all expectations related to conduct, training, marketing, and the use of RHP systems.

SECTION 5 – CONFIDENTIALITY & NON-DISCLOSURE AGREEMENT

5.1 Definition of Confidential Information

For purposes of this Agreement, "Confidential Information" includes but is not limited to all client data; contact lists; policy information; premium amounts; commission schedules; compensation data; downline or hierarchy structures; lead sources; marketing systems; scripts; software access; passwords; training content; and any business, financial, or operational information belonging to RHP Insurance, LLC, its affiliates, carriers, or partners, whether disclosed verbally, in writing, electronically, or by observation.

5.2 Duty of Confidentiality

The Agent agrees to maintain the strict confidentiality of all Confidential Information both during and after their association with RHP Insurance, LLC.
The Agent shall not, without prior written consent from RHP:

- Disclose, copy, share, or reproduce any Confidential Information for personal or third-party use;
- Use such information to solicit clients, agents, or carriers outside of RHP; or
- Retain client or company records following termination.

All Confidential Information remains the sole property of RHP Insurance, LLC and must be returned or permanently deleted upon request or termination.

5.3 HIPAA and Client Data Protection

Definitions.

"Personally Identifiable Information" ("PII") means information that identifies or can reasonably be used to identify an individual, including but not limited to name, address, date of birth, Social Security number, driver's license number, phone number, or email address.

"Protected Health Information" ("PHI") means individually identifiable health information relating to an individual's health status, insurance coverage, claims, benefits, or medical history.

Because RHP Insurance, LLC may handle health-related information under the Affordable Care Act or other insurance programs, the Agent agrees to maintain full compliance with the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act (HIPAA) and all related privacy regulations.
The Agent shall protect all Personally Identifiable Information (PII) and Protected Health Information (PHI) in accordance with federal and state law and immediately notify RHP of any suspected or confirmed data breach.

Agent shall implement reasonable administrative, technical, and physical safeguards to protect PII and PHI, including password protection, secure storage and transmission, and prohibiting storage of client data on unencrypted personal devices. Agent shall not transmit PHI via unsecured email or text messaging.

Agent must notify the Company within twenty-four (24) hours of discovering or reasonably suspecting any unauthorized access, disclosure, loss, or compromise of PII or PHI and shall cooperate fully with investigation and mitigation efforts.

5.4 Non-Circumvention and Non-Interference

The Agent agrees not to circumvent RHP Insurance, LLC by contracting directly with any carrier, lead vendor, marketing partner, or other entity introduced through RHP without written authorization.
The Agent shall not interfere with, disrupt, or divert any existing relationship between RHP and its carriers, vendors, or agents for personal benefit.

SECTION 6 – NON-SOLICITATION AND NON-COMPETITION

6.1 Purpose and Relationship to Other Sections

This Section reinforces the provisions previously stated in Sections 3.5 (Ownership of Downline Agents) and 5 (Confidentiality & Non-Disclosure). It defines the post-termination obligations of the Agent and provides remedies in the event of unfair competition or solicitation.

6.2 Non-Solicitation of Clients and Agents

The Agent shall not, during their relationship with RHP Insurance, LLC and for a period of two (2) years following termination, directly or indirectly:

Solicit, divert, or attempt to solicit any client obtained through RHP systems or carriers for the purpose of selling or replacing insurance outside RHP; or

Recruit, solicit, or attempt to recruit any agent, contractor, or employee of RHP Insurance, LLC to join another agency, FMO, IMO, or organization.

These restrictions apply to all RHP clients and agents, not only those within the Agent's hierarchy at the time of termination.

Non-Solicitation of Agents; No Competitive Use of Company Resources.

Agent agrees that during the term of this Agreement and for a period of twenty-four (24) months following termination for any reason, Agent shall not, directly or indirectly, solicit, recruit, induce, encourage, or attempt to solicit or recruit any Company agent, contractor, employee, or downline participant to terminate, alter, or reduce their relationship with the Company or to join, contract with, or conduct business with any competing business or organization.

Agent further agrees that Agent shall not use the Company's agents, training programs, presentations, systems, technology platforms, leads, marketing materials, data, communications, proprietary processes, or other Company resources to promote, sell, support, or build any product, service, or business outside of the Company, or in competition with the Company, whether during or after the term of this Agreement.

Any violation of this provision shall constitute a material breach of this Agreement and shall result in immediate termination for cause, forfeiture of unpaid compensation to the maximum extent permitted by law, and the Company's right to seek injunctive relief, damages, and any other remedies available at law or in equity.

6.3 Geographic and Scope of Restriction

Because RHP Insurance, LLC operates on a national basis, these restrictions apply throughout the United States and to any territory in which RHP conducts business or markets its services. The Agent agrees that these restrictions are reasonable in duration and scope and necessary to protect RHP's legitimate business interests.

6.4 Limited Non-Competition Provision

During the term of this Agreement, the Agent may represent other carriers or organizations, provided that such representation does not create a conflict of interest or violate any confidentiality or solicitation provisions herein.
RHP Insurance, LLC reserves the right to terminate this Agreement if it determines that the Agent's outside affiliation directly competes with or undermines RHP's contractual or business interests.

6.5 Remedies for Breach

Any breach or threatened breach of this Section shall constitute a material violation of this Agreement. In such case, RHP Insurance, LLC is entitled to seek injunctive relief, restraining orders, damages, and all other equitable or legal remedies available under law, without the need to post bond.
The Agent agrees to reimburse RHP for any attorneys' fees and costs incurred in enforcing this Section.

6.6 Acknowledgment of Obligations

By signing this Agreement, the Agent acknowledges that they have read and understand this Section 6 in its entirety and agree that the restrictions described herein are fair, reasonable, and necessary to protect RHP Insurance, LLC's business interests.

SECTION 7- COMPLIANCE AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS

Notwithstanding the foregoing, where any applicable law, regulation, carrier requirement, or CMS rule mandates a shorter reporting timeframe, the shorter required timeframe shall control.

The Agent shall follow all carrier rules relating to sales presentations, advertising approvals, and application submissions. All business must be submitted through RHP-approved systems and within the scope of the Agent's state licenses and appointments. Failure to follow carrier or product guidelines may result in non-payment of commissions and/or termination of this Agreement.

The Agent is responsible for keeping accurate client records, applications, and communications in accordance with state and federal retention laws. All records pertaining to RHP clients are the property of RHP Insurance, LLC and must be produced upon request for audit or regulatory review.

7.4 Compliance Audits and Investigations

RHP Insurance, LLC reserves the right to audit Agent files, communications, and applications for compliance at any time. If no commissions are available, or if the amount owed exceeds available commissions, the Agent expressly agrees that RHP Insurance, LLC may pursue full legal recovery, including civil judgment, collection actions, or other lawful remedies, to recover the loss, damages, attorneys' fees, and costs associated with such recovery.

The Agent further agrees to indemnify and hold harmless RHP Insurance, LLC, its officers, employees, and affiliates from any liability, loss, or expense arising out of the Agent's conduct, advice, or failure to comply with laws or regulations.

7.7 Acknowledgment of Compliance Obligations

By signing this Agreement, the Agent acknowledges that they have read and understand this Section 7 in its entirety and agree to operate their business in compliance with all laws, regulations, and company policies.

SECTION 8 – TERMINATION AND POST-TERMINATION OBLIGATIONS

8.1 Grounds for Termination

The Agent's obligations under Sections 3.5 (Ownership), 5 (Confidentiality & Non-Disclosure), and 6 (Non-Solicitation and Non-Competition) shall survive termination of this Agreement for their stated time periods.
All provisions concerning indemnification, liability, and recovery of losses shall also remain enforceable after termination.

8.4 Post-Termination Legal Rights

RHP Insurance, LLC reserves the right to pursue legal action, collection, or civil judgment for any amounts owed to the Company, including chargebacks, penalties, or damages caused by the Agent's conduct.
RHP may report any confirmed instances of fraud, misrepresentation, or regulatory violation to the appropriate carriers or authorities.

8.5 Final Settlement and Release

Payment of any remaining commissions following termination shall constitute full and final settlement of all compensation owed to the Agent under this Agreement.
The Agent releases RHP Insurance, LLC from any further claims or liabilities related to commissions, overrides, or bonuses after termination, except as expressly provided herein.

8.6 Application and Refund Policy

All application, processing, background-check, or administrative fees paid to RHP Insurance, LLC in connection with onboarding or registration are non-refundable.
Because these fees cover the administrative review, compliance verification, and setup costs required to begin processing an Agent's application, no refund will be issued once payment has been submitted, regardless of whether the Agent completes onboarding, becomes licensed, or later terminates their agreement.

8.7 Acknowledgment of Termination Provisions

By signing this Agreement, the Agent acknowledges that they have read and understand this Section 8 in its entirety and agree to comply with all post-termination obligations and restrictions.

SECTION 9 – INDEMNIFICATION AND LIABILITY WAIVER

- Any breach of this Agreement or of any RHP policy; or

This obligation applies whether such claim is asserted during or after the Agent's association with RHP Insurance, LLC.

9.2 Limitation of Liability

RHP Insurance, LLC shall not be liable to the Agent for any indirect, incidental, consequential, or punitive damages, including but not limited to loss of income, business opportunities, or goodwill, even if such damages were foreseeable or advised.
RHP's total liability to the Agent for any claim arising out of this Agreement shall be limited to the amount of commissions actually paid to the Agent within the previous twelve (12) months.

9.3 Legal Costs and Recovery Rights

If RHP Insurance, LLC prevails in any action to enforce this Agreement or recover losses caused by the Agent, the Agent shall be responsible for all attorneys' fees, court costs, collection fees, and related expenses incurred by RHP.

RHP retains the right to pursue civil judgment or other lawful remedies for recovery of any unpaid obligations, chargebacks, or damages.

9.4 Survival of Obligations

The indemnification, limitation of liability, and recovery provisions of this Section shall survive the termination of this Agreement and remain enforceable to the fullest extent permitted by law.

SECTION 10 – DISPUTE RESOLUTION & GOVERNING LAW

10.1 Choice of Law

This Agreement shall be governed by and construed in accordance with the laws of the State of Florida and applicable federal law of the United States of America. The Agent and RHP Insurance, LLC agree that Florida law's substantive rules will apply to any dispute arising under or relating to this Agreement.

10.2 Exclusive Venue

The arbitration shall be administered by the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or another arbitration provider selected by the Company, in accordance with its commercial arbitration rules then in effect. The arbitration shall be conducted in Hillsborough County, Florida, unless the Company elects another location.

The arbitrator's decision shall be final and binding, and judgment on the arbitration award may be entered in any court of competent jurisdiction.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, the Company shall have the exclusive right, at its sole discretion, to seek temporary, preliminary, or permanent injunctive relief, equitable relief, or enforcement of restrictive covenants, confidentiality obligations, or intellectual property rights in a court of competent jurisdiction, without waiving its right to arbitration for all other matters.

Arbitration shall be conducted on an individual basis only. The Agent expressly waives any right to participate in a class action, collective action, representative action, or private attorney general action against the Company.

Unless otherwise awarded by the arbitrator as permitted by law, each party shall bear its own attorneys' fees and costs; however, the Company shall be entitled to recover its reasonable attorneys' fees and costs where authorized under this Agreement or applicable law.

This arbitration provision shall be governed by the Federal Arbitration Act (9 U.S.C. §§ 1–16) and applicable Florida arbitration statutes and shall survive termination of this Agreement.

10.4 Waiver of Class Actions

The Agent and RHP Insurance, LLC each acknowledge and agree that any arbitration or litigation arising out of this Agreement must be conducted on an individual basis only and not as part of a class action, consolidated action, or representative proceeding.

Upon providing written notice to the Company, the Agent may request the release or transfer of their Book of Business, appointments, or related servicing rights to another entity or carrier. The Agent may continue to write new business immediately upon providing notice, including with other organizations, subject only to applicable licensing requirements.
The Company agrees that it will not intentionally delay, obstruct, or interfere with any release or transfer process.
For clarity, any costs, advances, fees, licensing expenses, marketing expenses, or other financial investments incurred by the Company on behalf of the Agent shall be considered outstanding obligations of the Agent unless otherwise agreed in writing, and may be collected, offset, or otherwise recovered in accordance with this Agreement.
Any outstanding financial obligations, including but not limited to chargebacks, advances, or other debts owed to the Company, shall remain the responsibility of the Agent and may be offset or collected in accordance with this Agreement.
Nothing in this Section shall prevent the Company from ensuring compliance with applicable regulatory requirements or contractual obligations.

RHP FINANCIAL | THE OWNERS GROUP

CHARGEBACK REPAYMENT, CONTINUING PROMISSORY NOTE & PERSONAL GUARANTY ADDENDUM

Supplement to the applicable Agent Program Agreement (APA)

This Addendum is entered into by RHP Insurance LLC d/b/a RHP Financial ("RHP"), The Owners Group, LLC ("Owners Group"), the individual signing below ("Signer"), and, if named below, the agency or entity ("Agency"). RHP and Owners Group are each a "Company" and together the "Companies." Each Company may enforce this Addendum for its own covered losses, obligations, and amounts payable to it; neither may collect the same loss twice. "Debtor" means Signer for individual business and Agency for entity business. Signer also assumes the individual obligations expressly stated below. This Addendum applies to business placed through, contracted under, or assigned to either Company by Debtor or producers in Debtor's direct or indirect downline hierarchy ("Covered Business"), including chargebacks arising after affiliation ends.

1. Full downline chargeback responsibility

Debtor expressly assumes 100% responsibility to reimburse the affected Company for documented, valid chargebacks, returned or reversed commissions and overrides, unearned advances, debit balances and similar amounts attributable to Covered Business that are assessed against, deducted from, or legally owed by either Company. This includes losses from direct and indirect downline producers in Debtor's hierarchy during the applicable production period, whether or not those producers reimburse anyone. Neither Company need first pursue a downline producer. Responsibility is limited to actual covered obligations and does not include unrelated hierarchies, unsupported assessments, or amounts caused solely by the affected Company's own breach or misconduct. All recoveries and reversals for the same loss are credited; no double recovery.

2. Continuing promissory note; unconditional promise to pay

FOR VALUE RECEIVED, each Debtor, as maker, unconditionally promises to pay to the order of the Company to which the amount is owed the unpaid amount of every valid obligation described in Section 1, as it arises and is documented in the Companies' account records, less all applicable credits. This is a continuing contractual promissory note and reimbursement undertaking covering fluctuating future balances; it is not represented as a fixed-sum negotiable instrument. No amount is owed merely because a Company records it: each charge must have a valid underlying contractual or carrier basis. The affected Company will provide an itemized electronic ledger identifying the source, amount, and credits, with reasonable supporting information upon request.

3. Email notices; due date and default

Signer designates the email below for contractual statements, demands, and notices and agrees to keep it current and monitor it. Email notice is effective when sent to the designated address without an automated delivery-failure notice; if delivery fails, the sending Company must use a reasonably reliable alternative. This does not replace legally required service of process or statutory notices. An itemized obligation is due 30 calendar days after effective electronic delivery. If unpaid, the affected Company may send an electronic default notice; an uncured amount remaining five business days after effective delivery constitutes default. “Business day” excludes Saturdays, Sundays and U.S. federal holidays. the affected Company may agree in writing to different payment terms.

4. Disputes, offsets and collection

Signer may dispute an itemized amount by email with available supporting facts; the affected Company will review and respond reasonably. Undisputed amounts remain due. A dispute does not itself erase a valid debt or waive statutory rights. After default, the affected Company may accelerate incurred installment balances, stop discretionary advances, offset amounts lawfully payable by the enforcing Company to the same obligor, and pursue collection, suit, arbitration where binding, or other lawful remedies. Debtor must pay reasonable documented enforcement costs and attorneys’ fees to the extent recoverable by applicable law. Any repayment plan modifies only the specified schedule or remedies, does not extinguish the debt, and preserves agreed lawful offsets unless stated otherwise.

5. Continuing security in compensation

To the extent lawfully transferable and subject to superior carrier and third-party rights, Debtor grants each Company, solely to secure amounts owed to it a continuing security interest in Debtor’s rights to commissions, renewal commissions, overrides, and their identifiable proceeds arising from Covered Business, and authorizes accurate financing statements where permitted. This grant does not give either Company ownership of client policies, client funds, or any book of business. Each Company must comply with applicable collateral enforcement, accounting, and release requirements.

6. Individual guaranty of agency obligations

IF AN AGENCY IS NAMED BELOW: Signer signs both on behalf of Agency as its authorized representative AND separately in Signer’s individual capacity. Signer absolutely and unconditionally guarantees timely payment of 100% of the Agency’s valid obligations under this Addendum, including covered downline chargebacks, whenever assessed, and promises to pay the Company to which the amount is owed on demand after Agency default. This is a continuing guaranty of payment, not merely collection; The enforcing Company need not first sue Agency or exhaust its remedies, except as law requires. Signer’s liability is reduced by all payments or credits on the same debt. The individual guaranty survives termination for Covered Business arising during the relationship. No guaranty applies if “N/A” is entered as Agency.

7. Credit reporting and lawful remedies

After an individual obligation is validly established, including under Section 6, the Company owed the debt may refer delinquent debt to a lawful collection provider and, no earlier than 90 days after effective itemized notice, may furnish accurate information to a consumer reporting agency that accepts the account type, if legally permissible. This provision does not guarantee bureau acceptance or permit inaccurate reporting. Any reporting Company will follow applicable Fair Credit Reporting Act and other furnishing, investigation, correction, and dispute requirements. An LLC debt is not automatically an individual credit obligation absent an enforceable personal guaranty or other personal liability.

8. Survival; relationship to APA; governing terms

Termination, release, hierarchy change or carrier transfer does not itself discharge valid obligations attributable to Covered Business. For chargeback liability, continuing promise to pay, notice, payment deadlines, offsets, guaranty, collection, and the rights of both Companies, this Addendum controls over conflicting APA terms to the extent legally permitted. Other APA provisions remain in effect, including any binding dispute-resolution requirement that cannot be displaced without a valid amendment. Florida law governs to the extent permitted by controlling law and mandatory insurance, arbitration and jurisdiction rules. Invalid provisions are severable; no provision waives nonwaivable rights or limits lawful defenses.
